Dear Sir:

Referring to the Shultz $5.00 Gold Piece, this piece is already marked at our very lowest figure, at which it can and will be sold. For your information, the first specimen we had of this coin was sold for $1500 net, but as we have had quite a few transactions with you in the past, we are willing to allow you a special discount of 10%. If you do not want the coin at this price you may return it immediately; otherwise we shall appreciate your check.

While on the subject, we would also appreciate a report on the first consignment which you took about November 3rd. We feel sufficient time has now elapsed.

Mr. Wyman will be in Philadelphia on Monday to attend your Sale.

Very truly yours,

JG:HDL

Dear Mr. Chapman:

As you can understand, we are closing our books for the end of the year and are particularly anxious to get a report on all the coins now out on approval. As a matter of fact the consignment in your hands is by far the largest that is out on approval, and until we hear from you it is difficult to close our books.

We would appreciate it very much then if you could give us some report as to what you intend to do with the pieces you hold and especially if we might receive a check for such as you expect to keep.

Very truly yours,
